NFR

1. Program Never crashes i.e. if the file is empty or user provides big random number for x or y axes than it should not crash or the application
2. Input from the command line or file should be accepted
3. Reviewer should be able to build & run the application by reading Readme.
4. Should work on any O/s window, Linux or mac os
5. logic can be tested using any without the console appln
6. Code should be easy to understand in review